

Sermon Reflection Sheet: "Why We Need to Serve"

Have you ever pondered the intrinsic qualities of young children? Their natural curiosity, hunger for knowledge, and unique personalities often shine through effortlessly. Similarly, I suggest that God has wired each of us with an innate need to serve.

Genesis 1:26-31 - The Creation Mandate:

Reflect on the passage from Genesis, which portrays humanity's creation in the image of God. As bearers of His image, we are entrusted with the responsibility to co-create with Him, stewarding His creation. How does this divine mandate resonate with your understanding of your purpose to serve?

Understanding the Purpose of Service:

Consider the notion that our service to God transcends mere duty; it is an act of worship. Just as we express our adoration through song, our service becomes a form of worship, demonstrating our reverence and obedience to our Creator. How does viewing service as an act of worship transform your perspective on serving others?

Genesis 2:15-17 - The Garden of Eden:

Contemplate God's assignment to Adam to tend and keep the garden, recognizing the parallel responsibility we hold to steward the areas of influence entrusted to us by God. In what ways do you perceive your "garden" of influence, and how can you better tend to it in alignment with God's will?

Luke 4 - The Temptation of Jesus:

Reflect on the temptation of Jesus in the wilderness, particularly Satan's offer of authority over the kingdoms of the world. Consider Jesus' response and the significance of reclaiming authority through His sacrifice and resurrection. How does understanding Christ's victory over temptation empower you to resist worldly enticements and fulfill your Kingdom assignment?

Embracing Our Identity in Christ:

Examine the importance of understanding your identity in Christ, which empowers you to step into your Kingdom assignment. Reject the notion that only select individuals possess a divine call, and embrace the truth that every believer is called to stewardship and service. How can you align your thoughts and actions with your identity as a co-heir with Christ?

Practical Steps Forward:

- Embrace the completed work of Christ and receive His authority in your life.
- Identify and embrace your Kingdom assignment, aligning your pursuits with God's purpose for your life.
- Challenge the divisive mindset of a laity/clergy divide, recognizing the equal importance of every believer's role in God's Kingdom.
- Find joy and strength in serving God wholeheartedly, knowing that your efforts contribute to His divine plan.

Conclusion:

As we reflect on the significance of service, let us remember that our call to serve originates from God's divine plan and purpose. By embracing our identity in Christ and actively stewarding our assignments, we align ourselves with God's will and find fulfillment in His Kingdom. Take time to contemplate these reflections and consider how you can more fully engage in serving God and others in your daily life.
